Once upon a time, there was a young boy named Tommy who dreamed of becoming a doctor. But Tommy was born with a disability that made it difficult for him to walk. Many people told Tommy that he would never be able to achieve his dream, but Tommy refused to give up.

Tommy worked hard every day to overcome his disability. He went to physical therapy and practiced walking with crutches. He also studied hard in school and got good grades. When he was in high school, Tommy applied to medical school. He was rejected at first, but he didn't give up. He applied again the next year, and this time he was accepted.
