

The Gallery: A Journey Through the Hidden Lives of Women in Art

A Note from the Author

My debut novel, "The Gallery," was born out of a deep fascination with the stories of women artists who have been forgotten, overlooked, or overshadowed by their male counterparts throughout history.

In this novel, I imagined a secret gallery where these extraordinary women could finally share their voices and showcase their undeniable talent. The characters are fictional, but their experiences are inspired by countless real-life artists whose contributions to the art world should never be forgotten.
