A Year of Unforgettable Battles

From the opening bell of Wrestle Kingdom 18 to the final curtain at Wrestle Kingdom 19, NJPW delivered a nonstop barrage of breathtaking matches. The year was highlighted by several classic encounters, including:

- Kazuchika Okada vs. Hiroshi Tanahashi at Wrestle Kingdom 18: The two legends of NJPW collided in a dream match that lived up to the hype. Okada emerged victorious, but Tanahashi's performance cemented his status as one of the greatest of all time.
- Jay White vs. Will Ospreay at Dominion 6.9: The brash young upstart challenged the reigning IWGP World Heavyweight Champion in a thrilling match that showcased both men's incredible athleticism. White's victory propelled him to the main event scene.
- Kenny Omega vs. The Elite at All Out: The former NJPW stars reunited for a high-stakes match at AEW's All Out pay-per-view. Omega emerged victorious, but the match was marred by controversy and the subsequent implosion of The Elite.

Epic Rivalries that Captivated the Fans

In addition to its unforgettable battles, NJPW 2024 was also defined by a number of epic rivalries that captivated the fans. These feuds showcased the depth of NJPW's roster and provided the backdrop for some of the year's most memorable moments.

- Okada vs. Tanahashi: The long-running rivalry between Okada and Tanahashi reached new heights in 2024. The two legends faced off in a series of matches that tested their limits and pushed them both to the brink.
- White vs. Ospreay: The young upstart and the reigning champion traded wins and losses throughout the year, culminating in a thrilling rubber match at Wrestle Kingdom 19. White's victory cemented him as a top star, while Ospreay's performance earned him the respect of the NJPW faithful.

- Bullet Club vs. CHAOS: The two factions engaged in a heated rivalry that spanned the entire year. With Kenny Omega leading The Elite and Kazuchika Okada leading CHAOS, the feud reached its boiling point at Wrestle Kingdom 19, where CHAOS emerged victorious.

The Rise of New Stars

2024 was also a year of transition for NJPW, as several young stars emerged and made their mark on the promotion. These rising stars brought a fresh perspective to NJPW, injecting new life into the company and ensuring its future success.

- Shingo Takagi: The "Dragon" made a name for himself in 2024 with his hard-hitting style and fearless attitude. He captured the NEVER Openweight Championship and put on several memorable matches throughout the year.
- Hiroshi Tanahashi: The "Time Bomb" returned from injury in 2024 and quickly reestablished himself as one of NJPW's most popular stars. His high-flying style and infectious charisma won over the fans.
- Kota Ibushi: The former IWGP World Heavyweight Champion made his long-awaited return to NJPW in 2024. He immediately challenged Okada for the title and put on a stunning performance, despite coming up short.
