The Year in Review

2024 was a banner year for NJPW. The company celebrated its 50th anniversary with a series of major events, including Wrestle Kingdom 18 in the Tokyo Dome. NJPW also expanded its international reach, with successful tours of the United States and the United Kingdom.

In the ring, NJPW continued to produce some of the best wrestling in the world. Kazuchika Okada, Tetsuya Naito, and Hiroshi Tanahashi all had memorable years, and new stars like Will Ospreay and Jay White emerged as major players.
